- 7.3 If your status as Member of CRYP has been suspended or terminated, you shall remain subject to the Rules in respect of:
 - 7.3.1 Acts and omissions that took place during the period for which you were a Member and shall comply with any request made by CFL for information in relation to the period of your participation at any time following your suspension or termination; and
 - 7.3.2 Any outstanding obligations under the Rules until those obligations have been satisfied.
- 7.4 Where we suspend or terminate your status as a Member under this Part I: Rule 7, we shall be entitled, at our discretion, to take any or all of the following actions:
 - 7.4.1 Freeze any Cryptoasset and/or fiat currency balances associated with your Account until all investigation about the reason for such suspension has been concluded or until it has been confirmed that you do not owe us or any Counterparty any amount, whichever is later;
 - 7.4.2 Close any of your Positions at the current market price or keep any of your Positions open until Final Settlement;
 - 7.4.3 Enforce any security interest you have granted in our favour (whether as security trustee or otherwise) in relation to the relevant secured assets and apply the proceeds of enforcement or, where permissible, appropriate such secured assets in satisfaction of your relevant secured obligations;
 - 7.4.4 Take any other step or exercise any other rights or remedies available to us until it has been confirmed that you do not owe us or any Counterparty any amount.
- 7.5 CFL will notify you in writing, as soon as practically possible, of any action taken under this Part I: Rule 7.

- 7.6 CFL shall not be liable for any losses or foregone profits that you suffer as a result thereof your status as Member of CRYP having been suspended or terminated.

PART II: MARKET MECHANICS

1. Your Instructions

- 1.1 If you trade using CRYP then any Position which you enter into is held in your name and you are responsible for the obligations associated with that position under the Rules.
 - 1.1.1 You must not execute Transactions on CRYP on behalf of any other person unless you are a Broker Member.
- 1.2 You may be required to notify us of the person who you are acting for and provide any other details which we may reasonably require in order to fulfil reporting requirements or any other obligations under Applicable Law.
- 1.3 CFL provides reasonable means to manage Positions and Orders in relation to Downtime such as:
 - 1.3.1 The feature that enables Members to activate a timer that, absent any re-activation within a specified time frame, causes the system to automatically cancel the Member's open Orders. This aids Members in handling loss of connectivity to CRYP.
 - 1.3.2 The messaging system on CRYP which together with the related communication procedure gives proactive notification of any Downtime anticipated.
 - 1.3.3 The period following Downtime during which Members may only submit Order cancellations or Orders that do not cross the Order Book ("Downtime Recovery Process").
- 1.4 If you have submitted an Order on CRYP, any execution that occurs through CRYP in relation to that Order, with or without your manual intervention, involves entering into a Position. If you wish to close a Position you can offer to enter into the reverse Transaction as set out in Part II: Rule 5.2.4.
- 1.5 CFL, at our full discretion, may cancel, vary or correct any Instruction or Transaction:
 - 1.5.1 At a Member's request; and
 - 1.5.2 Where we deem it necessary, including:
 - (a) To ensure a fair and orderly market on CRYP;
 - (b) To uphold market integrity;
 - (c) To comply with Applicable Law or if so required by a Regulator;
 - (d) In connection with system disruptions or system malfunctions (e.g. where an Order is the result of a system malfunction);
 - (e) Where the Order or Transaction is in respect of a financial instrument that has been removed from the Eligible Instruments List or which has been suspended from trading on CRYP; and/or
 - (f) In accordance with our Clear Error Trade Policy.

2. Hours of Operation

- 2.1 With the exception of any Non-Trading Day and any scheduled or unscheduled Downtime, CRYP is in operation 24 hours a day, 7 days a week each day of the year.
- 2.2 CRYP shall employ reasonable efforts to notify Members in advance of any Non-Trading Day and scheduled Downtime.
- 2.3 CFL may reduce trading hours permanently or for a period of time, in relation to any one or all of the Eligible Instruments and shall notify Members of any such reduction.
- 2.4 CFL may suspend access to CRYP at any time and without Notice in order to carry out system maintenance or for other reasons such as maintaining an orderly market.

3. Clock Synchronisation

- 3.1 Unless otherwise noted, CRYP ensures that the business clocks that it uses on all system logs and any other reportable events are timestamped with UTC.
- 3.2 Accuracy of the timestamp data is reinforced by regular synchronisation on Network Time Protocol.

4. Margin Requirements

- 4.1 In order to enter into a Position or to submit an Order relating to an Eligible Instrument, a Margin Account must have sufficient Margin Account Equity to meet the Initial Margin Requirement for that Position. If the Margin Account Equity in your Margin Account falls below the Initial Margin Requirement, any Open Orders that would increase the Position will be cancelled.
- 4.2 In respect of any open Position(s), the Member must retain sufficient Margin Account Equity in their Margin Account to meet the Maintenance Margin Requirement of that Margin Account. A Member cannot remove Collateral recorded to its Margin Account if that would result in it having insufficient Margin Account Equity to meet its Maintenance Margin Requirement for an outstanding Position.
- 4.3 Initial Margin Requirement and Maintenance Margin Requirement parameters applicable to any Eligible Instrument are published on the Platform from time to time. Members are responsible for ensuring that they are aware of the prevailing margin parameters at any time.
- 4.4 A Member may hold more than one Margin Account, and different types of Eligible Instruments may be allocated to different Margin Accounts. The types of Margin Account available, the Eligible Instruments allocated to each, and the margining methodology applicable to each (including the treatment of cross-margin and isolated-margin Positions and any applicable margin netting rules), are published on the Platform from time to time. Each Margin Account is margined independently, and the initiation of the Equity Protection Process in respect of one Margin Account does not affect Positions or Collateral held in any other Margin Account.

- 4.5 Where a Member is permitted to isolate a Position in an Eligible Instrument for margining purposes from other Positions in Eligible Instruments which otherwise would be held in the same Margin Account, that isolated Position shall be treated for the purposes of this Rulebook as if it were held in a separate Margin Account. The Collateral allocated to that separate Margin Account shall be determined in accordance with the margining methodology published on the Platform.

5. Trading

- 5.1 To execute a Transaction on CRYP, you must submit an Order to CRYP. Once you have submitted an Order, it shall be attempted to be matched according to the Order Matching Process with another Member of CRYP.

5.2 Your Counterparty:

- 5.2.1 If your Order is successfully matched with another Member, then this Member becomes your Counterparty in that Transaction.
- 5.2.2 CFL does not serve as Counterparty in any Transaction occurring on CRYP.
- 5.2.3 CFL matches all Members anonymously prior to and at the point of execution. Each Member agrees that, once any non-centrally cleared Transaction has been executed, CFL (or its agent) may disclose their identity (including Legal Entity Identifier) to the counterparty solely to facilitate risk management, settlement and regulatory compliance.
- 5.2.4 You can close out a Position by offering to enter into the reverse Transaction on CRYP, provided that a corresponding Counterparty is found.

5.3 Profit & Loss and Collateral

- 5.3.1 CFL calculates the Profit & Loss of your Position based on our Profit & Loss Model.
- 5.3.2 CFL chooses the specifications of the Profit & Loss Model such that it adequately represents the fair market price as expressed by the Mark Price of an Eligible Instrument.
- 5.3.3 Together, (i) the Cryptoassets and/or fiat currency you have deposited into and have not been removed from a given Margin Account, (ii) your realised profit or loss from past Transactions conducted through that Margin Account that have not been removed from the Margin Account, (iii) the unrealised Profit & Loss from your Position in that Margin Account, and (iv) any net realised Funding Rate payments settled in respect of Position(s) in that Margin Account (being Funding Rate amounts received by you, less Funding Rate amounts paid by you, in each case that have been settled), comprise the collateral you have available to cover potential future losses from your Position(s) and open Orders in connection with that Margin Account ("Collateral").
- 5.3.4 It is your responsibility to constantly monitor your Margin Account Equity and ensure that it is equal to or higher than your Maintenance Margin Requirement, for instance by allocating additional Collateral to the Margin Account or closing out part or all of your Position.

5.4 The Equity Protection Process

- 5.4.1 Where the Margin Account Equity in a Margin Account falls below the Maintenance Margin Requirement for that Margin Account, CFL shall carry out the process set out in Rule 5.4.2 (the "Equity Protection Process"), which seeks to protect your Margin Account from incurring negative Margin Account Equity.
- 5.4.2 Once initiated, the Equity Protection Process performs the following actions in relation to the Margin Account for which it has been triggered, and you consent to allow CFL to undertake these actions on your behalf without any further consent or approval:
- (a) Cancel your open Orders;
 - (b) If the conditions for the Partial Liquidation Process set out in Rule 5.4.3 are met, partially liquidate your Position(s) in accordance with the Partial Liquidation Process;
 - (c) If the Partial Liquidation Process does not apply to the relevant Position(s), or if the conditions for the Full Liquidation Process set out in Rule 5.4.4 are otherwise met, liquidate your Position(s) in accordance with the Full Liquidation Process;
 - (d) If applicable, assign any remaining position according to the Position Assignment Process;
 - (e) If applicable, liquidate any remaining position according to the Covered Liquidation Process (linear positions only); and
 - (f) If applicable, unwind any remaining position according to the Position Unwind Process.

5.4.3 Partial Liquidation Process

- (a) CFL shall initiate the partial liquidation process set out in this Rule 5.4.3 (the "Partial Liquidation Process") where:
 - (i) the Margin Account Equity in a Margin Account is less than the Maintenance Margin Requirement but equal to or greater than the Liquidation Margin Threshold for that Margin Account; and
 - (ii) the relevant Position(s) are in Eligible Instruments to which the Partial Liquidation Process applies, as published on the Platform.
- (b) CFL may delay or suspend the Partial Liquidation Process where:
 - (i) trading in the relevant Eligible Instrument has been halted or suspended in accordance with Part III: Rule 2;
 - (ii) CFL reasonably determines that initiating the Partial Liquidation Process would be likely to materially impair the orderly functioning of CRYPT; or
 - (iii) CFL is required to do so by Applicable Law or at the direction of a Regulator.

Any such delay or suspension shall be for the minimum period necessary in the circumstances, as determined by CFL. CFL shall initiate or resume the Partial Liquidation Process as soon as the relevant circumstances cease to apply. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this sub-paragraph (b) prevents CFL from initiating the Full Liquidation Process in accordance with Rule 5.4.4 during any period in which the Partial Liquidation Process has been delayed or suspended

- (c) Upon initiation of the Partial Liquidation Process, CFL shall submit one or more immediate-or-cancel Orders with a limit price equal to the Zero Equity Price to incrementally reduce the Position(s) in that Margin Account until either:
 - (i) the Margin Account Equity of the Margin Account is restored to a level at or above the Maintenance Margin Requirement for all remaining open Position(s) in that Margin Account;
 - (ii) the relevant Position(s) are closed in their entirety; or
 - (iii) the Margin Account Equity of the Margin Account falls below the Liquidation Margin Threshold for that Margin Account, in which case the Full Liquidation Process is initiated in accordance with Rule 5.4.4.

The quantity of each such Order shall be determined by CFL in accordance with the partial liquidation methodology published on the Platform.

- (d) Each Order submitted under the Partial Liquidation Process shall be filled at the best available price(s) at the time of submission and may or may not result in the complete closure of the relevant Position(s), depending on the Orders of other Members sitting in the Order Book at that time.
- (e) A fee (the "Partial Liquidation Fee") shall be charged in respect of each Order executed under the Partial Liquidation Process, calculated as follows:
 - (i) Where the Order is executed at a price more favourable than the Zero Equity Price, the Partial Liquidation Fee is the absolute difference between: (A) the lesser of the execution price and the Mark Price, in the case of a sell Order, or the greater of the execution price and the Mark Price, in the case of a buy Order; and (B) the Zero Equity Price, multiplied by the quantity of the Order executed.
 - (ii) Where the Order is executed at a price equal to or less favourable than the Zero Equity Price, no Partial Liquidation Fee is charged.
 - (iii) For the avoidance of doubt, the Partial Liquidation Fee shall not exceed the residual Margin Account Equity attributable to the relevant Position after execution of the Order.

- (iv) CFL reserves the right to apply a fee factor to the calculation in sub-paragraph (i) above, as published on the Platform from time to time, which may reduce the Partial Liquidation Fee below the amount that would otherwise be charged. Any fee factor applied under this sub-paragraph shall apply equally to all Members.

5.4.4 Full Liquidation Process

- (a) CFL shall initiate the full liquidation process set out in this Rule 5.4.4 (the "Full Liquidation Process") where:
 - (i) in respect of Positions to which the Partial Liquidation Process applies, the Margin Account Equity is less than the Liquidation Margin Threshold for that Margin Account; or
 - (ii) in respect of Positions to which the Partial Liquidation Process does not apply, the Margin Account Equity is less than the Maintenance Margin Requirement for that Margin Account.
- (b) Upon initiation of the Full Liquidation Process, CFL shall submit an immediate-or-cancel Order with a limit price equal to the Zero Equity Price of the Margin Account to the Order Book. This Order shall be filled at the best available price(s) at the time the Full Liquidation Process was initiated and may or may not completely liquidate your Position, depending on the Orders of other Members sitting in the Order Book at that time.
- (c) A fee (the "Full Liquidation Fee") shall be charged in respect of each Order executed under the Full Liquidation Process, calculated as a percentage of the Minimum Maintenance Margin for the relevant Eligible Instrument, as published on the Platform, multiplied by the notional value of the executed Order.
- (d) Any Collateral that remains after the Full Liquidation Process shall be allocated to your Margin Account.

5.4.5 Positions are assigned as follows:

- (a) If the Position Liquidation Process does not result in a complete liquidation of your Position, any surviving Position will immediately undergo the Position Assignment Process;
- (b) CFL attempts to assign some or all of your surviving Position to Assignment Counterparty(s) at the Zero Equity Price;
- (c) By definition, any such assignment does not result in the return of any further Collateral to your Margin Account. Instead, such Collateral is transferred to the Member(s) acting as Assignment Counterparty(s), together, the "Position Assignment Process".

5.4.6 Positions undergo covered liquidation as follows:

- (a) If the Position Assignment Process does not result in a complete liquidation of your Position, there are sufficient funds in the liquidity pool and the market spread is less than 4%, any surviving Position will immediately undergo the Position Assignment Process;
- (b) CFL places an immediate-or-cancel Order with its price deviation 5% away from best/ask price;
- (c) Any negative balances that result from the covered liquidation execution are covered by funds in the liquidity pool.

together, the "Covered Liquidation Process"

5.4.7 Positions are unwound as follows:

- (a) If neither of the Position Assignment Process nor the Covered Liquidation Process results in a complete assignment of your surviving Position, any surviving Position is immediately taken over by the Position Unwind Process;
- (b) Your surviving Position is then unwound at the Zero Equity Price by cancelling out open interest of the same size with Unwind Counterparty(s) that are selected according to the Unwind Counterparty Selection Process;
- (c) By definition, any such unwind does not result in the return of any further Collateral to your Margin Account. Instead, such Collateral is transferred to the Member(s) acting as your Unwind Counterparty(s), together, the "Position Unwind Process".

5.4.8 Unwind Counterparty(s) are selected as follows:

- (a) Any Positions of any Member in the Eligible Instrument that have the opposite direction of the Position that undergoes the Position Unwind Process are sorted by Degree of Collateralization;
- (b) Starting with the Position with the lowest Degree of Collateralization, all Members that hold any such Position up to the point where the cumulative size of all such Positions is equal to or greater than the size of the Position that undergoes the Position Unwind Process are selected as Unwind Counterparty(s);
- (c) If some or all of your Position is selected in the Unwind Counterparty Selection Process, you agree to allow CFL to unwind your Position as described in Part II: Rule 5.4.7(b) and accept the resulting Collateral as described in Part II: Rule 5.4.7(c), together, the "Unwind Counterparty Selection Process".

5.4.9 You agree that your Position could be subject to the Unwind Counterparty Selection Process at any time, and you will not hold CFL liable for any losses or foregone profits that you may suffer as a result of CFL executing the Equity Protection Process.

- 5.4.10 The Position Unwind Process results in a reduction in open interest and an increase in the total Degree of Collateralization of all open Positions in the Eligible Instrument that undergoes a Position Unwind Process.
- 5.4.11 The rules and procedures CFL applies regarding the determination of Profit & Loss, Collateral, Initial Margin Requirement, Maintenance Margin Requirement, Position Liquidation Process, Position Assignment Process, Position Unwind Process and Unwind Counterparty Selection Process are identical for all Members.

6. Pre Trade Information, Post Trade Confirmation, Clearing and Settlement

- 6.2.1 Following a Transaction, Members will be notified immediately of the details of that Transaction including:

 - (d) The UTC timestamps at which these quantities were transacted.

- 6.3.1 Before you are able to enter into a Transaction on CRYPT, you are required to post Collateral in relation to any Position that requires Collateral. If a Position results in a financial loss, this Collateral is appropriated to cover that loss.

6.4 Settlement:

Settlement shall be effected in accordance with the provisions in Appendix III.

- 6.4.1 CFL shall not be a party to or be responsible or liable to you or another Member under or in connection with the settlement of any Position.

Applicable Law, the Rules, and/or good settlement practice, as the case may be.

fees are charged in either Cryptoasset and/or fiat currency and are calculated as a percentage of the matched notional amount of each Transaction.

7.4 This fee is charged in either Cryptoasset and/or fiat currency and is calculated as a percentage of the matched notional amount of each Transaction.

7.5 The fee percentage may depend on a number of factors, including on whether your Order is Liquidity Taking or Liquidity Providing.

7.6 The fee percentage may vary from Member to Member based upon:

7.6.1 Whether a Member is a Market Maker or not;

7.6.2 The historical trading volume generated by a Member; and

7.6.3 The type of Member.

- 1.5 All Eligible Instruments that are admitted to trading on CRYP and included on the Eligible Instruments List shall be searchable on the CRYP search facility available via the Platform.

2. Trading Halts and Suspension of Eligible Instruments

- 2.1 CFL may without prior notice temporarily halt or constrain trading on CRYP, or cancel, vary or correct any Transaction, if we reasonably determine that a significant price movement occurred in an Eligible Instrument or there has been any other volatility in an Eligible Instrument on CRYP or a related trading venue during a short period. When taking such measure(s) (including, as applicable, determining the duration of the halt or constraint), CFL shall at all times act in good faith having regard to the nature of the Eligible Instrument, our liquidity profile, types of Members and the possible damage that such measure(s) may cause to the interest of Members.
- 2.2 CFL may suspend or remove one or more particular Eligible Instrument(s) from trading on CRYP if CFL deems it necessary to do so:

 - 2.2.3 In response to a request from a Regulator;

- 2.2.4 For any other reason at our discretion, such as in response to system disruptions, disorderly market conditions, network issues, hosting and cloud computing issues, database errors, software errors, adverse market events, excessive volatility, excessive price moves, or we consider that the instrument no longer meets the Instrument Eligibility Criteria.
- 2.3 Where an Eligible Instrument is suspended or removed from trading, Members are notified of this suspension via the Platform. Any Member that is party to a transaction in relation to such an Eligible Instrument is notified directly.
- 2.4 We shall not use our powers to suspend or remove from trading an Eligible Instrument (including suspending or removing a financial instrument from the Eligible Instruments List) where such step would likely cause significant damage to the interests of Members or the orderly functioning of CRYP.
- 2.5 Upon suspension of trading, CFL shall inform the Regulator of such suspension.

- 3.4 It is permissible for a Member to deploy software which utilises API keys to facilitate manual trading through an alternative application ("Aggregator"), and this does not constitute Algorithmic Trading. In this case, the Member agrees:
- 3.4.1 To accept all liability from use of an Aggregator and that the use of any such software is at the Member's own risk; and
 - 3.4.2 To ensure that any Aggregator used by the Member which integrates CFL provides the option for a Member to specify that the Instructions are being sent by a person.
 - 3.4.3 When utilising such an Aggregator, to specify that Instructions are executed with human intervention.

4. Prohibited Trading Practises and Market Abuse

- 4.1 You are responsible for ensuring that your activities on CRYP are lawful. In particular, your activities must not constitute Market Abuse under MAR, which prohibits certain activities. Market Abuse under MAR is a civil offence. It is your own responsibility to ensure that your actions do not amount to Market Abuse under MAR, however Appendix II contains a summary of some activities that are prohibited.

- 1.4 CRYP retains the right to withhold crediting of fiat currency and cryptoasset deposits indefinitely when required to do so under Applicable Law and instructed to do so by a relevant Regulator or law enforcement agency.

2. Your Obligations

- 2.1 You agree that you are required to, on an on-going basis:

APPENDIX I – CLEAR ERROR TRADE POLICY

1. Definitions

1.1 Capitalised terms in this Appendix I shall have the same meaning as given in the Rulebook unless expressly stated otherwise.

1.2 For the purposes of this Appendix I the following definitions apply:

"Clear Error Trade" means a Transaction which has been executed (i) at a price that is substantially different to, or inconsistent with, the market price for that Eligible Instrument at the time of execution, and/or (ii) on terms (e.g. price or size) that would, in Crypto Facilities' reasonable view, be entered or calculated in error in the circumstances or would otherwise be detrimental to market integrity on CRYP;

"Clear Error Trade Powers" has the meaning given in paragraph 2.6 of this Appendix I;

"System Disruption or Malfunction" means (i) any disruption, malfunction or technical failure of CRYP or the Platform, including any electronic communications, which results in a Transaction being incorrectly processed by CRYP; or (ii) any incorrect, stale or otherwise erroneous reference data incorporated into or used by CRYP.

2. Erroneous Transaction Process

2.1 In order to promote the integrity of CRYP, Crypto Facilities uses the Clear Error Trade Policy to address trade errors and disputes for all Transactions.

2.2 Subject to this paragraph, Crypto Facilities may conduct a review of a Transaction to determine whether such Transaction is a Clear Error Trade either:

2.2.1 At the request of a Member to a Transaction within 6 hours of the execution of a Transaction;

2.2.2 At Crypto Facilities' own discretion; and/or

2.2.3 Otherwise in accordance with Applicable Law.

2.3 Crypto Facilities may determine in our sole discretion that the circumstances of a Transaction warrant a Transaction review regardless of whether or not a review request has been submitted.

2.4 Crypto Facilities considers each Transaction review request on a case-by-case basis. In determining whether a Transaction is a Clear Error Trade, Crypto Facilities may utilise such information and consult with any relevant parties or Members that we deem appropriate, including, without limitation:

2.4.1 The review request (if applicable);

2.4.2 Transactions on CRYP which occurred prior to and following the alleged erroneous Transaction;

2.4.3 Indicative pricing either available on CRYP or sourced from third parties;

2.4.4 Crypto Facilities' in-house market knowledge and expertise;

2.4.5 Any recorded communication of Transaction terms;

2.4.6 Any electronic or other communication in connection with the Transaction may also be a significant consideration in determining whether such Transaction is considered Clear Error Trade or the result of a System Disruption or Malfunction; and/or

- 2.4.7 Any other information Crypto Facilities deems to be relevant in the circumstances.
- 2.5 We shall use our reasonable efforts to resolve any issue arising in connection with a Transaction review and shall promptly notify you and any other relevant Members of any final determination that we make by email to the email address you have provided to us.
- 2.6 In the event Crypto Facilities determines that the Transaction is a Clear Error Trade or is the result of a System Disruption or Malfunction, Crypto Facilities may: (i) break the Transaction; (ii) modify the terms of the Transaction (subject to the consent of the parties to the applicable Transaction); or (iii) cancel the Transaction ("Clear Error Trade Powers").
- 2.7 If Crypto Facilities determines a Transaction should be cancelled in accordance with this Appendix I, the relevant Members and Crypto Facilities shall take such steps as may be necessary to affect such cancellation.
- 2.8 Crypto Facilities shall not be liable for any losses that you may suffer as a result of a decision to review, or not to review, a Transaction; or to use, or not to use, our Clear Error Trade Powers. Crypto Facilities reserves the right, in our sole discretion, not to declare a Transaction to be Clear Error Trade in markets too volatile or too illiquid to discern the true market level of the Eligible Instrument at the time.
- 2.9 In all circumstances, the Transaction shall remain the obligation of the relevant Members who are a party to the Transaction until Crypto Facilities notifies the Members by email that the Transaction has been adjusted or cancelled pursuant to this Appendix I.

3. Review Process

- 3.1 To request a review of a Transaction, a Member to the applicable Transaction must notify Crypto Facilities via email to mtf-onboarding@kraken.com within 6 hours of execution of the Transaction. Review requests must include the following information:
 - 3.1.1 Execution(s);
 - 3.1.2 Name of the relevant instrument;
 - 3.1.3 Spread/Price(s);
 - 3.1.4 Side (bought or sold); and
 - 3.1.5 Factual basis for believing that the execution is either clearly erroneous or the result of a System Disruption or Malfunction, or other.
- 3.2 Upon receipt of a request from a Member to review a Transaction, Crypto Facilities shall notify, by telephone or email, the other Member(s) that acted as counterparty to the Transaction of the details of such request.
- 3.3 The party requesting a review of a Transaction may withdraw its request via email to mtf-onboarding@kraken.com at any time prior to the time Crypto Facilities notifies the parties to the Transaction of our final determination.
- 3.4 In the event that a trade review is initiated later than 6 hours after the trade, Crypto Facilities may nonetheless, in our discretion, attempt to get a mutually agreed upon price adjustment or trade cancellation from the counterparties to each trade.

4. Variation

- 4.1 Crypto Facilities reserves the right to modify this Appendix I from time to time at our sole discretion in accordance with Part V: Rule 7. Your continued use of CRYPT shall constitute your acceptance of such modifications, and of Crypto Facilities' Clear Error Trade Powers.

APPENDIX II – MARKET ABUSE GUIDANCE

1. Introduction

- 1.1 All Members of CRYP are required to ensure that their actions do not amount to Market Abuse.
- 1.2 This Appendix II sets out some guidance about the types of activities relating to CRYP which are prohibited under MAR, however in no circumstances should this Appendix II be taken to be advice to you or as giving confirmation that you may or may not be carrying on any prohibited activity on CRYP.
- 1.3 If you are in any doubt as to your position, you should seek your own legal advice.

2. Insider Dealing

- 2.1 Inside information and insider dealing:
 - 2.1.1 You must not, in relation to Eligible Instruments:
 - (a) engage or attempt to engage in insider dealing;
 - (b) recommend that another person engages in insider dealing or induce another person to engage in insider dealing; or
 - (c) unlawfully disclose Inside Information.
 - (d) “Inside Information”, in summary, means:
 - (i) Information of a precise nature, which has not been made public;
 - (ii) Relating, directly or indirectly, to one or more issuers or to one or more Eligible Instruments; and
 - (iii) Which, if it were made public, would be likely to have a significant effect on the prices of those Eligible Instruments or on the price of related derivative Eligible Instruments.
 - 2.1.2 You must not use Inside Information to:
 - (a) Acquire or dispose of (including an attempt to acquire or dispose of) Eligible Instruments to which that information relates; or
 - (b) Cancel or amend (including an attempt to cancel or amend) an Order concerning an Eligible Instrument to which the information relates where the Order was placed before you possessed the Inside Information.
 - 2.1.3 Where you carry out one of the activities above when in possession of Inside Information, it shall be presumed that insider dealing took place.
- 2.2 Recommending another to insider deal:
 - 2.2.1 You must not, on the basis of Inside Information:
 - (a) Recommend that another person acquires or disposes of Eligible Instruments to which that information relates, or induce that person to make such an acquisition or disposal; or

- (b) Recommend that another person cancels or amends an Order concerning an Eligible Instrument to which that information relates or induce that person to make such a cancellation or amendment.

2.3 Unlawful disclosure of Inside Information:

- 2.3.1 You must not, except in the normal exercise of your employment, profession or duties disclose Inside Information to any other person.
- 2.3.2 The onward disclosure of any recommendation/inducement received by a person (in breach of insider dealing rules) shall be considered an unlawful disclosure of Inside Information where the person onward disclosing it knows or ought to know that it was based on Inside Information.

2.4 Legitimate behaviour:

- 2.4.1 There are certain circumstances where the mere possession of Inside Information shall not be deemed to indicate that you used such information to engage in insider dealing, but these circumstances are limited. The following are examples of legitimate behaviour, that shall not be seen as insider dealing:
 - (a) Where a person in possession of Inside Information is authorised to execute the Order on behalf of third parties and the acquisition/disposal of Eligible Instruments to which that Order relates, is made to carry out such an Order legitimately in the normal course of the exercise of that person's employment, profession or duties; or
 - (b) Where a person in possession of Inside Information conducts a transaction to acquire or dispose of Eligible Instruments and that transaction is carried out in the discharge of an obligation that has become due in good faith and not to circumvent the prohibition against insider dealing and always provided:
 - (i) That obligation results from an Order placed, or an agreement concluded, before the person concerned possessed Inside Information; or
 - (ii) That transaction is carried out to satisfy a legal or regulatory obligation that arose before the person concerned possessed Inside Information.

3. Offense of Market Manipulation

3.1 You must not engage or attempt to engage in the market manipulation of Eligible Instruments.

3.2 Non-exhaustive examples of prohibited activities:

- 3.2.1 Entering into a transaction, placing an Order to trade or any other behaviour which:
 - (a) Gives, or is likely to give, false or misleading signals as to the supply of, demand for, or price of, the instrument in question; or
 - (b) Secures, or is likely to secure, the price of one or several instruments at an abnormal or artificial level, unless you can establish that such actions have been carried out for legitimate reasons and conform with an accepted market practice.

- 3.2.2 Entering into a transaction, placing an Order to trade or any other activity or behaviour which affects or is likely to affect the price of one or more instruments in question, which employs a fictitious device or any other form of deception or contrivance.
 - 3.2.3 Disseminating information which gives, or is likely to give, false or misleading signals as to the supply of, demand for, or price of the instrument in question or is likely to secure its price at an abnormal or artificial level, including the dissemination of rumours, where you knew, or ought to have known, that the information was false or misleading.
 - 3.2.4 Engaging in any course of conduct which creates a false or misleading impression as to the market in or the price or value of any relevant investment such as Contracts trading on the Exchange.
 - 3.2.5 Originating or circulating rumours of a sensational nature which have not already been widely circulated in the market, where there is no legitimate reason for doing so.
 - 3.2.6 Making a false or misleading statement or concealing facts with the intention of inducing, or being reckless as to whether making the statement or concealing the facts may induce another person (whether or not the person to whom the statement was made) to:
 - (a) Enter into or offer to enter into, or to refrain from entering or offering to enter into, a relevant agreement relating to Eligible Instruments; or
 - (b) To exercise, or refrain from exercising, any rights conferred by a relevant investment in Eligible Instruments.
 - 3.2.7 Placing Orders which you do not desire to be actually filled.
 - 3.2.8 Intentionally transacting between accounts with the same ultimate beneficial owner.
 - 3.2.9 Transacting with the objective of unduly influencing prices.
- 3.3 Accepted market practices:
- 3.3.1 The prohibition of market manipulation shall not apply where the acts/omissions have been carried out for legitimate reasons and in conformity with an accepted market practice established by the competent authority in the relevant EU member state.

APPENDIX III – SETTLEMENT

General

1. Scope and Applicability

- 1.1. This Appendix III applies to the settlement of transactions in Eligible Instruments between:
 - 1.1.1. two Members who each utilise the CFL infrastructure for client money and crypto asset custody (each a “CRYP Custody Member”); or
 - 1.1.2. a CRYP Custody Member and a ClearLoop Client; or
 - 1.1.3. two ClearLoop Clients.
- 1.2. These provisions are subject to and form part of the Membership Agreement and Rulebook. Capitalised terms used but not defined in this Schedule have the meanings given in the Rulebook or Membership Agreement.

2. Initiation of Settlement

- 2.1. CFL initiates a settlement in response to:
 - 2.1.1. Any Transaction occurring that results in the increase or closing out of some or all of a Member’s Position, including, without limitation, as a result of a Transaction that occurred according to the Order Matching Process, the Position Liquidation Process, the Position Assignment Process or the Position Unwind Process (a “Close Out Transaction”);
 - 2.1.2. A Position being held to Final Settlement (a “Final Settlement Transaction”); or
 - 2.1.3. Hourly changes to the applicable Funding Rate in connection with a Position (a “Funding Rate Transaction”).

Final Settlement and Close Out Transactions

3. Determination of Final Settlement or Close Out Amount

- 3.1. Upon a Final Settlement Transaction, Close Out Transaction or Funding Rate Transaction occurring in respect of a Position in an Eligible Instrument:

- 3.1.1. CFL shall calculate (i) the Profit & Loss of the relevant Transaction based on the prices at which the Position was opened and closed, the size of that Position, and the contract specifications of the Eligible Instrument in which the Position was held (the "Final Settlement Payment Amount" or "Close Out Payment Amount", as applicable) or (ii) the Funding Rate payable by one Member to another and notified to the relevant Members (and such notice shall confirm which Member is the "paying Member" and which Member is the "receiving Member") (a "Funding Rate Payment Amount");
- 3.1.2. With respect to Final Settlement Payment Amounts or Close Out Payment Amounts, an obligation for the payment of the Final Settlement Payment Amount or Close Out Payment Amount shall arise and be immediately due and payable from the Member whose Position was closed in loss to the Member whose Position was closed in profit, in each case as determined by CFL pursuant to clause 3.1.1 of this Appendix III. With respect to Funding Rate Payment Amounts, an obligation for the payment of the Funding Rate Payment Amount shall arise and be immediately due and payable from the paying Member to the receiving Member, as determined and notified by CFL pursuant to clause 3.1.1 of this Appendix III.

Settlement Mechanics

4. Scope and Channels

- 4.1. Clauses 4 and onwards of Appendix III govern how CFL (and Copper, where applicable) effects settlement of Final Settlement Payment Amounts, Close Out Payment Amounts or Funding Rate Payment Amounts (each a "Settlement Amount").
- 4.2. Settlement may occur via:
 - 4.2.1. CFL custody ledger (where both parties are CFL Custody Members); or
 - 4.2.2. Copper ClearLoop (where one or both parties are ClearLoop Clients, with respect only to amounts to be settled using Cryptoassets);
- 4.3. Settlement shall proceed only to the extent that the Member obliged to make the relevant delivery or payment holds sufficient Collateral of the type specified as the settlement currency or settlement Cryptoasset in the applicable contract specifications for the Eligible Instrument (each a "Settlement Asset").

4.4. For the avoidance of doubt:

- 4.4.1. Where the relevant Eligible Instrument is contractually settled in fiat currency (e.g. USD), the Member must hold a sufficient beneficial interest in relation to that type of fiat currency pursuant to the CFL Client Money Trust;
- 4.4.2. Where the Eligible Instrument is contractually settled in a Cryptoasset (e.g. BTC), the Member must hold a sufficient beneficial interest in relation to that type of crypto asset pursuant to the CFL Cryptoasset Trust.

5. Scenario A — Both Parties Are CFL Custody Members, Or Either Or Both Parties Are ClearLoop Clients But The Settlement Asset Is A Fiat Currency

5.1. Settlement shall be effected by CFL:

- 5.1.1. Calculating the Settlement Amount in the relevant Settlement Asset; and
 - 5.1.2. Adding such amount to, or deducting such amount from, as the case may be, the Member's Collateral in which the Position resided, in each case by way of adjustments in CFL's internal ledger to the respective beneficial interests of the Member and the Counterparty under the CFL Cryptoasset Trust or the CFL Client Money Trust, as applicable, whereby the addition of an amount increases the Member's beneficial interest, and the deduction of an amount decreases the Member's beneficial interest.
- 5.2. No on-chain transaction or movement of crypto assets is required for settlement under this model. Each Member's beneficial interest is transferred through CFL's internal book entries that modify each Member's beneficial entitlement under the CFL Cryptoasset Trust or the CFL Client Money Trust, as applicable. Once the relevant book-entry is recorded within CFL's internal ledger, the settlement obligation is discharged.

6. Scenario B — CFL Custody Member vs ClearLoop Client And The Settlement Asset Is A Cryptoasset

- 6.1. Settlement of Cryptoasset amounts between a CFL Custody Member and a ClearLoop Client shall be effected by:
- 6.1.1. CFL calculating the Settlement Amount in the relevant Settlement Asset;
 - 6.1.2. CFL communicating the relevant Settlement Amount to Copper, together with such Position, account, and settlement data as Copper reasonably requires pursuant to the ClearLoop Documentation.

CFL's determination of the Settlement Amount provided to Copper (including but not limited to where that Settlement Amount is determined following application of the Equity Protection Process) is final and binding;

- 6.1.3. CFL transfers Cryptoassets equal to the relevant Settlement Amount in the relevant Settlement Asset to the CFL Sub-Custody Account;
 - 6.1.4. Copper acting, pursuant to the ClearLoop Documentation, on CFL's instructions communicated pursuant to clause 6.1.2 to give effect to the resulting transfers by book-entry between the relevant ClearLoop Client Accounts and the CFL Sub-Custody Accounts.
- 6.2. Where a Settlement Amount is owed to a ClearLoop Client by a CFL Custody Member:
- 6.2.1. CFL shall procure that Copper, pursuant to the ClearLoop Documentation, records a transfer of the relevant Settlement Asset from the CFL Sub-Custody Account to the ClearLoop Client Account, by way of book-entry adjustment to the respective ClearLoop Beneficial Interests of the ClearLoop Client and CFL, thereby reducing CFL's ClearLoop Beneficial Interest and increasing the ClearLoop Client's ClearLoop Beneficial Interest in each case in an amount equal to the Settlement Amount; and
 - 6.2.2. As near to simultaneously as practicable with, and in any case prior to, the adjustments referred to in clause 6.2.1, CFL shall reflect in CFL's internal ledger a debit of such amount of the relevant CFL Custody Member's beneficial entitlement under the CFL Cryptoasset Trust as is equal to the amount of the Settlement Amount.
 - 6.2.3. Settlement completes when Copper confirms the ClearLoop transfer and CFL records the matching entry and notifies the same to Copper.
- 6.3. Where a Settlement Amount is owed to a CFL Custody Member by a ClearLoop Client:
- 6.3.1. CFL shall procure that Copper, pursuant to the ClearLoop Documentation record a transfer of the relevant Settlement Asset from the ClearLoop Client Account to the CFL Sub-Custody Account, by way of book-entry adjustment to the respective ClearLoop Beneficial Interests of the ClearLoop Client and CFL, thereby reducing the ClearLoop Client's ClearLoop Beneficial Interest and increasing CFL's ClearLoop Beneficial Interest in each case in an amount equal to the Settlement Amount.

6.3.2. As near to simultaneously as practicable with, and in any case prior to, the adjustments referred to in clause 6.3.1, CFL shall reflect in CFL's internal ledger a credit of such amount of the relevant CFL Custody Member's beneficial entitlement under the CFL Cryptoasset Trust as is equal to the amount of the Settlement Amount.

6.4. Settlement completes when Copper confirms the ClearLoop transfer and CFL records the matching entry and notifies the same to Copper.

7. Scenario C — Both Parties Are ClearLoop Clients And The Settlement Asset Is A Cryptoasset

7.1. Settlement of Cryptoasset amounts between two ClearLoop Clients shall be effected by:

7.1.1. CFL calculating the Settlement Amount in the relevant Settlement Asset;

7.1.2. CFL communicating the relevant Settlement Amount to Copper, together with such Position, account, and settlement data as Copper reasonably requires pursuant to the ClearLoop Documentation. CFL's determination of the Settlement Amount provided to Copper (including but not limited to where that Settlement Amount is determined following application of the Equity Protection Process) is final and binding.

7.1.3. CFL shall procure that Copper acts, under the ClearLoop framework, on CFL's instructions communicated pursuant to clause 7.1.2 as settlement agent to give effect to the resulting transfer of the relevant Settlement Asset from one ClearLoop Client Account, by way of book-entry adjustment to the respective ClearLoop Beneficial Interests of the two ClearLoop Clients, thereby reducing the ClearLoop Beneficial Interest of the transferor ClearLoop Client and increasing the ClearLoop Beneficial Interest of the transferee ClearLoop Client in each case in an amount equal to the Settlement Amount.

7.2. Settlement completes when Copper confirms to CFL that the transfer of the relevant Settlement Asset is reflected in its books and records.

8. Finality

8.1. Settlement is final and irrevocable when the transfer of the relevant Settlement Amount between Counterparties is recorded on:

8.1.1. CFL's books and records, with respect to Scenario A;

- 8.1.2. Copper's and CFL's books and records, and CFL notifies Copper of its book entry with respect to Scenario B; or
- 8.1.3. Copper's books and records and Copper confirms this to CFL, with respect to Scenario C.
- 8.2. At the point at which settlement is final and irrevocable pursuant to clause 8.1, the transferor is discharged, and the transferee is deemed to have received the Settlement Amount in full satisfaction of its entitlement.

9. Settlement Failures and Disruptions

- 9.1. Each CRYP Custody Member and ClearLoop Client must ensure that, by the applicable settlement window or deadline, it holds sufficient Settlement Assets in the relevant account (for a CRYP Custody Member, within CFL custody available to be moved to a CFL Sub-Custody Account; for a ClearLoop Client, within its ClearLoop Client Account).
- 9.2. If the payer lacks sufficient Settlement Assets of the required type by the deadline, settlement may be delayed or fail. Without limiting other remedies available under the Rulebook or the Settlement provisions, CFL may:
 - 9.2.1. Suspend, restrict or condition the Member's trading access; and/or
 - 9.2.2. Invoke any applicable equity-protection or close-out process.
- 9.3. CFL shall not be liable for delay or failure attributable to Member fault, operational disruption to custody systems, blockchain disruption or congestion, or legal constraint affecting the Settlement Asset or the Member's entitlement thereto.
- 9.4. If CFL, Copper or the relevant blockchain is disrupted, CFL may defer or queue settlement instructions to the next available window or deadline.

10. Records and Evidence

- 10.1. CFL shall maintain records evidencing:
 - 10.1.1. Settlement Amounts;
 - 10.1.2. instructions sent to Copper;
 - 10.1.3. confirmations from Copper; and 10.1.4. related book-entries.

- 10.2. Entries and confirmations recorded by CFL and Copper are conclusive evidence of settlement, absent manifest error. To the extent that CFL and Copper record conflicting entries and confirmations CFL shall use best endeavours to coordinate with Copper to reconcile such conflicting entries and confirmations.
